

Call for Volunteers

We are looking for volunteers to support the Community Hub at Carnegie Library. We are developing activities in;

The Café

The Café will be the social centre of the Community Hub and is currently being developed into a venture that offers opportunities for employment and training for work.

The Enterprise Centre

The Enterprise Centre is the space in the building that we will dedicate for hire as office space for local entrepreneurs, business start-ups and self-employed.

Rooms for Commercial and Private Hire

We hire out all other rooms in the building for both business and private events (always provided the activity is appropriate to the building and its location). The large front room is available for business events, conferences and other commercial uses such as private enterprise classes, exhibitions etc. The smaller rooms are hired for meetings and other business uses such as training events and sessional classes.

All rooms are available for Private Hire for social events including parties, weddings and celebrations.

Community Activities such as:

- Community led meetings
- Groups for parents and children
- Music Groups including singing
- Performance of music, theatre and dance
- Arts Workshops

Advice such as:

- Employment advice
- Financial advice
- ESOL
- First Aid
- Foodbank and recycling

Clubs such as:

Brownies & Cubs, Bingo, Bridge & Chess, Computer coding etc., Crafts, Debates, Talks and Discussions, Film, Gardening and horticulture, Local History, Photography, Poetry, Warhammer.

A strong body of Volunteers is absolutely essential for the new Hub to succeed. Do please consider whether you want this new local facility, and if so, whether you can offer any of your time to help it succeed. Thank you.
